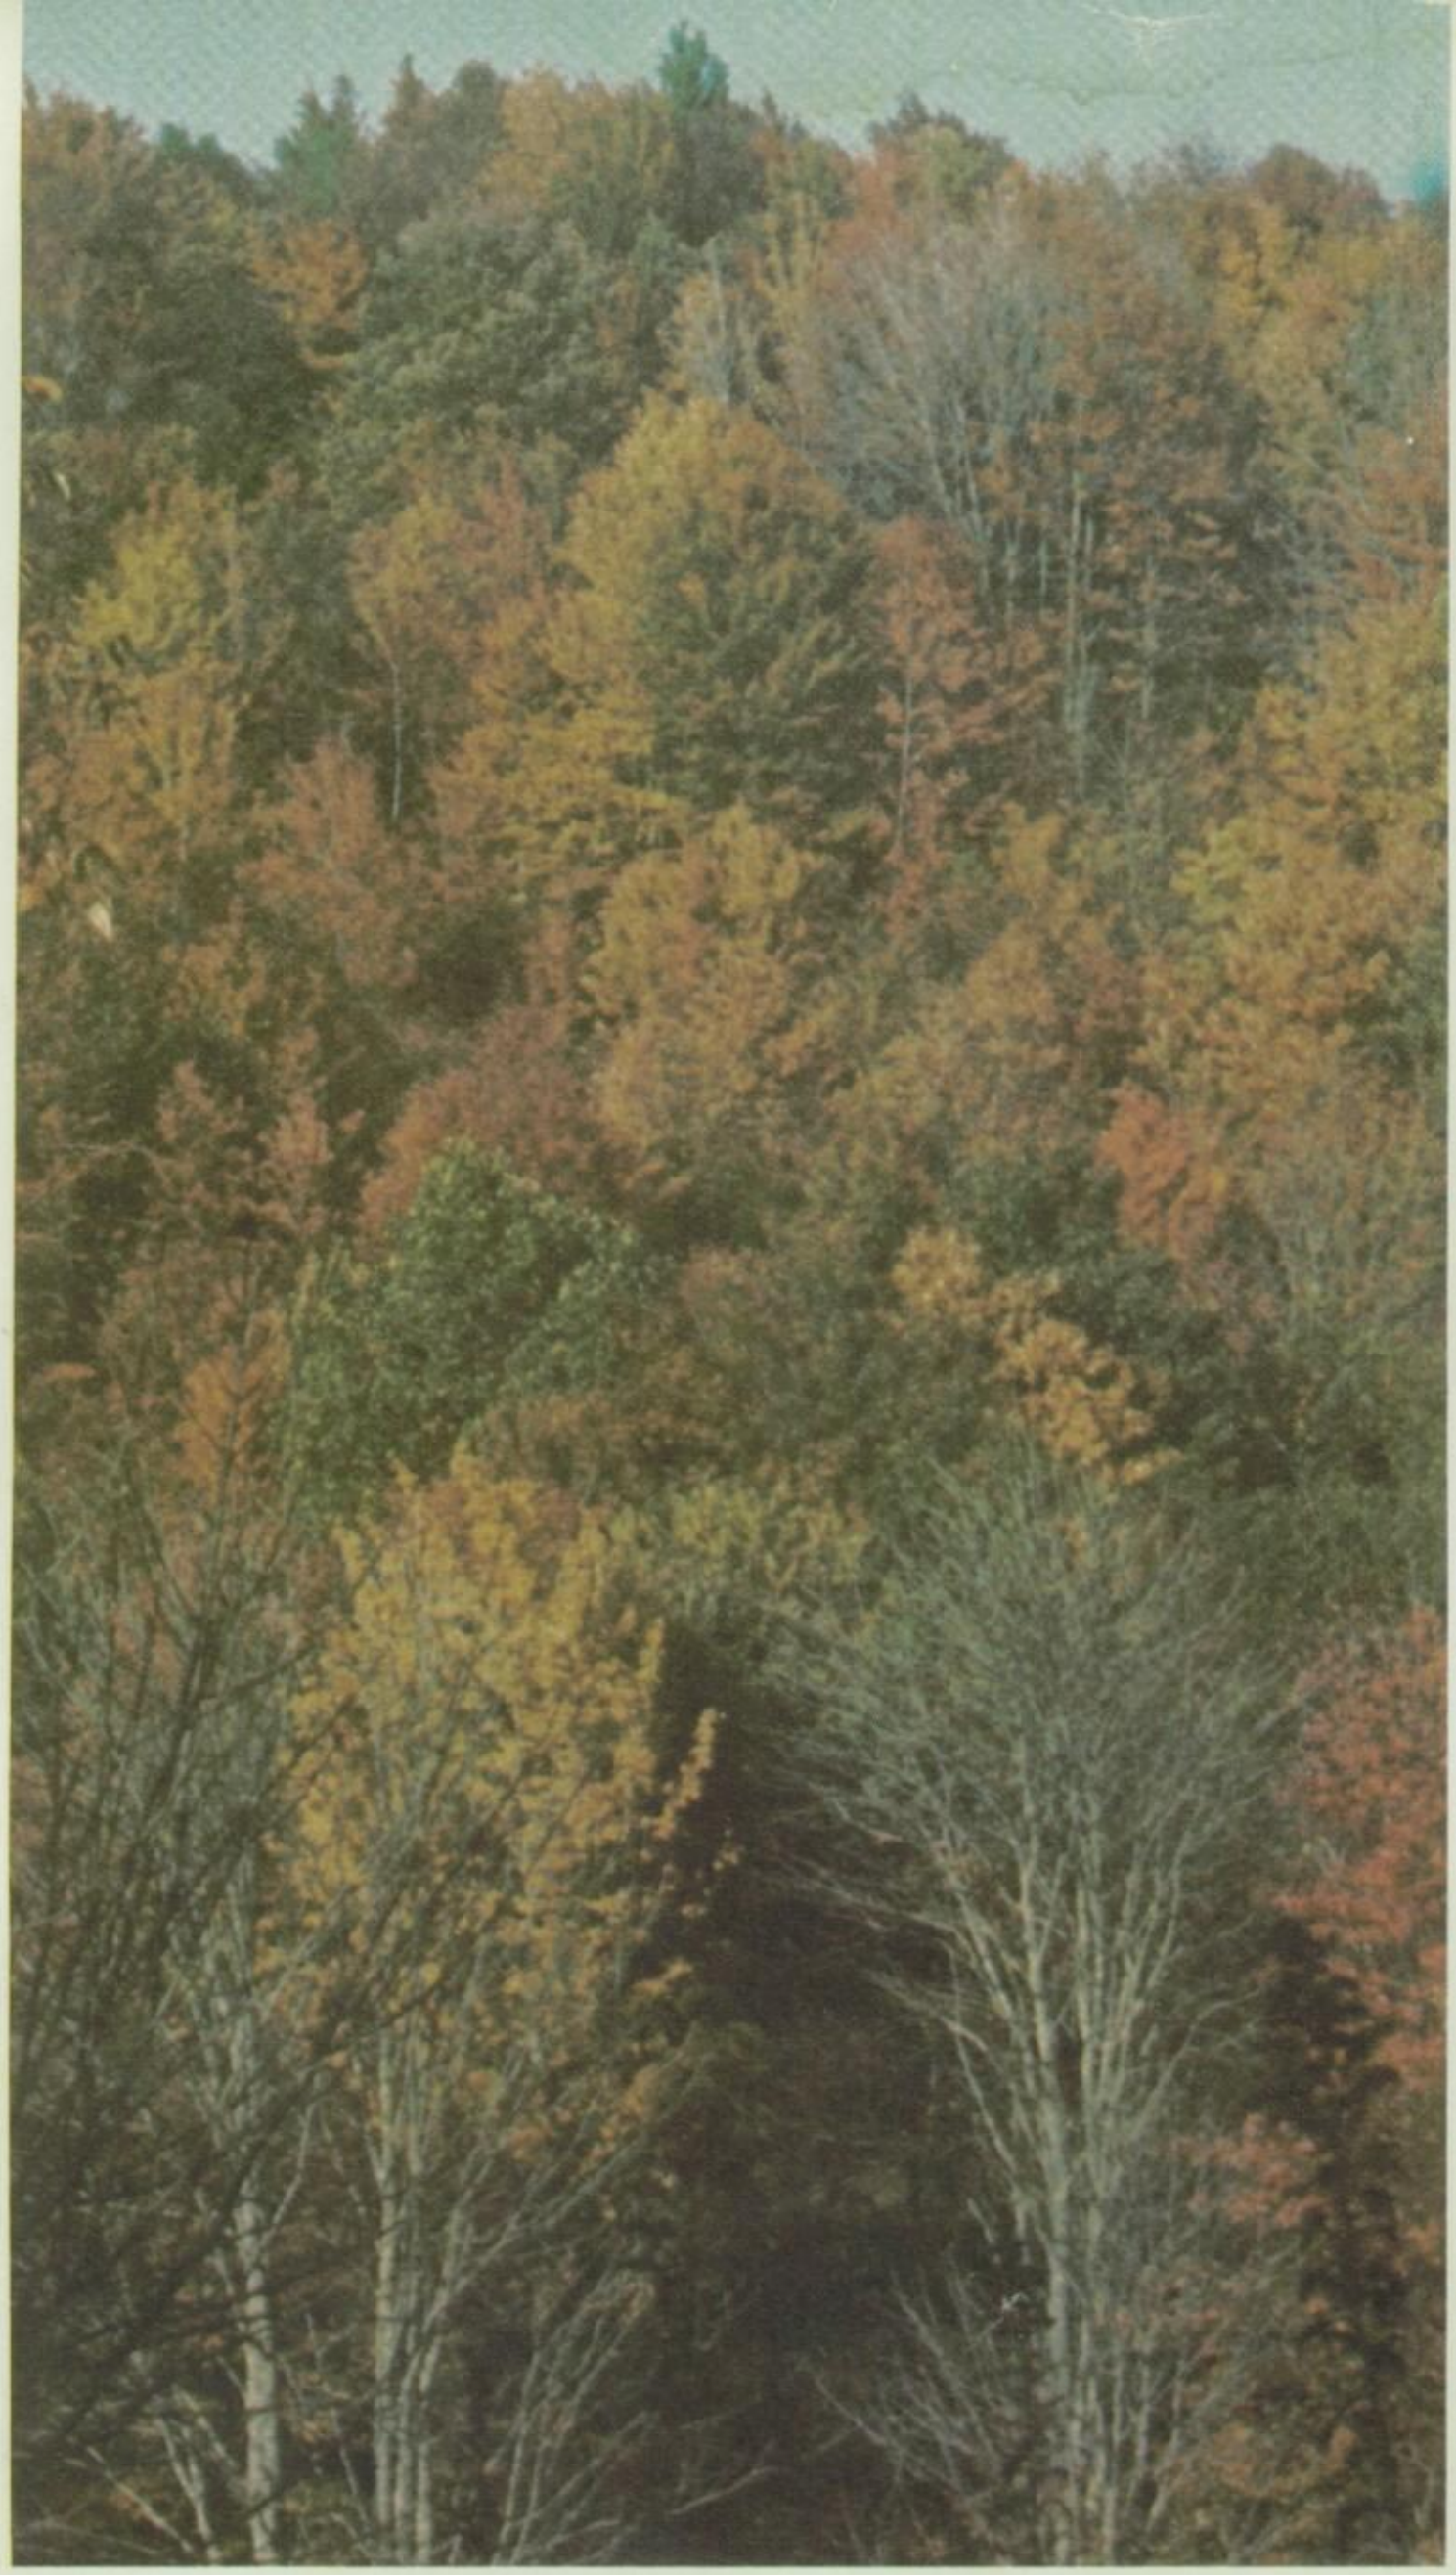
Journey . . .

Journey . . .

Journey . . .

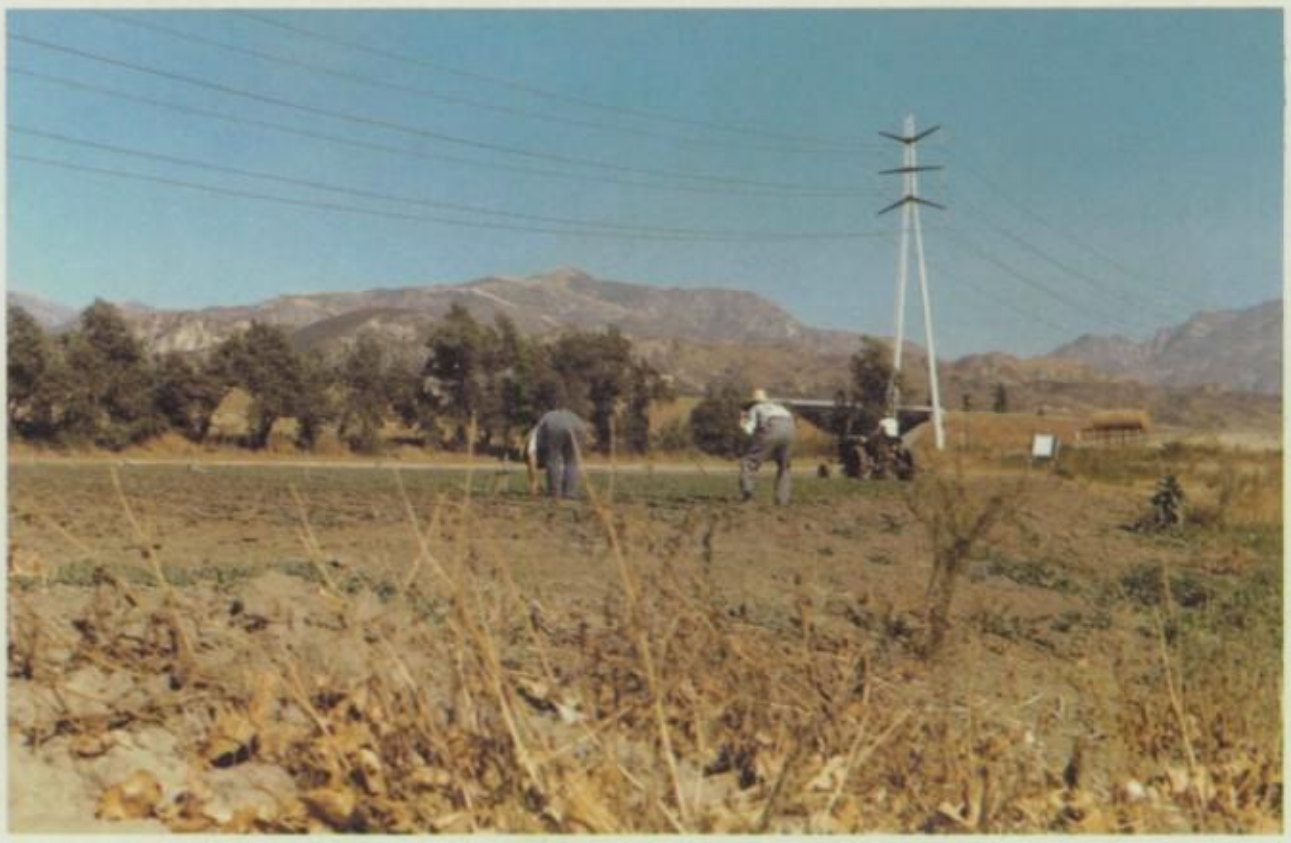
Journey . . .

As we journey through life's seasons, the changes and experiences combine to create our future. With each change another step in our journey brings us closer to destiny's design. The roads ahead may not always lead in the direction desired, but each journey helps us to discover new facets of our personality so we can grow as individuals. The internal trip allows our creativity to emerge and with this the realization that we can achieve, we can be successful. The dreams of our future burn brighter with each passing day and every journey becomes a special one.



Fall . . .

The changing colors announce the entrance of fall. As the green of summer becomes the gold and orange of autumn, crops are harvested and winter seeds are planted. Students returning to school renew old friendships and begin another phase of the learning cycle. The festive occasions of Halloween and Thanksgiving give the season added meaning.



A Time To Increase Skills

Success is based partly on the knowledge gained from the educational process. Learning takes many forms as we seek to discover the secrets of fame and fortune. In addition to traditional book learning, students explore vocational interests.

Top: Steve Ward spends many hours .naintaining his car in running condition. Far left: Typing is one of Vivian Barr's many talents. Center left: Bill Hall paints as one aspect of his part-time job. Center right: Mr. Clawson enjoys talking, and talking and talking . . . Far right: Dennis Stidham looks on as Dean Tadeo cooks hamburgers for snack.

Hi Brenda,
How you doin'?
Have a great summer
Love, Tony '82

Summer . . .

The sun-baked days of a desert summer provides the opportunity to enjoy leisure time activities in the out-of-doors. Swimming, fishing, backpacking, water-skiing are among the many activities which are enjoyed by all ages. Summer vacation from school gives us the time to discover talents and abilities.

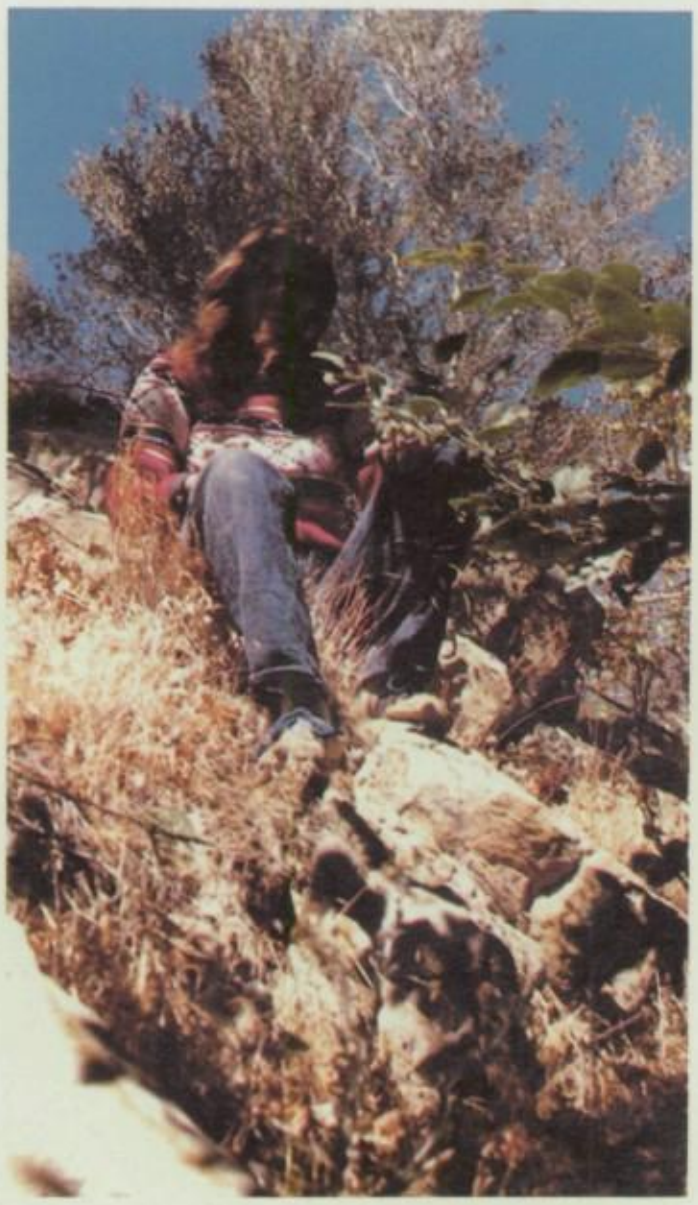
A Time To Be Creative

Creativity is enhanced when there is the freedom to pursue one's own inclinations. The products of our creative talents reinforce our self-confidence and gives us the courage to forge ahead.

Spring . . .

New life is the central theme of spring. Buds appear on barren branches, green sprouts from everywhere, and soon the earth is alive and growing, awakened after a winter's rest. The beauty of spring inspires each person to rediscover himself, to meet new people, and perhaps to fall in love. Spring brings the promise of a new beginning.



A Time To Contemplate

The quest for self-understanding is seldom an easy one. Of all the journeys we take during a lifetime this one will last the longest. The inner search for identity may be pursued in the company of others but often involves that time when we must be alone.

Winter . . .

With the arrival of winter the brown, skeleton-like limbs suddenly become alive with white, glistening snow. The winter climate provides more time for quiet reflection; the season is highlighted by the joy of the Christmas holidays, accented by the warmth of the fireplace. The activities of the cold months include skiing, ice skating, and other fun adventures associated with the fluffy snow.

A Time To Dream

Dreams are the beginning, plans follow; finally the dreams and plans are reality. Our plans take us in many directions — graduation, marriage, travel, jobs. For each the special dreams of winter are necessary for the actuality of tomorrow.

Students Serve On Student Relations Council

The 1980-81 school year is the second consecutive year that Desert Winds High School has sent student representatives to the Student Relations Council (SRC). This organization is designed for students to discuss and report to the Board of Trustees problems and concerns common to schools and students throughout the district. Advisor to the group was Mr. Ernie Tosi.

One of the major projects that SRC accomplished was to host, at the Palmdale Cultural Center on March 5, 1981, a conference for junior and senior high student government leaders. The purpose of this unique workshop was to share ideas, and discuss new leadership skills and techniques.

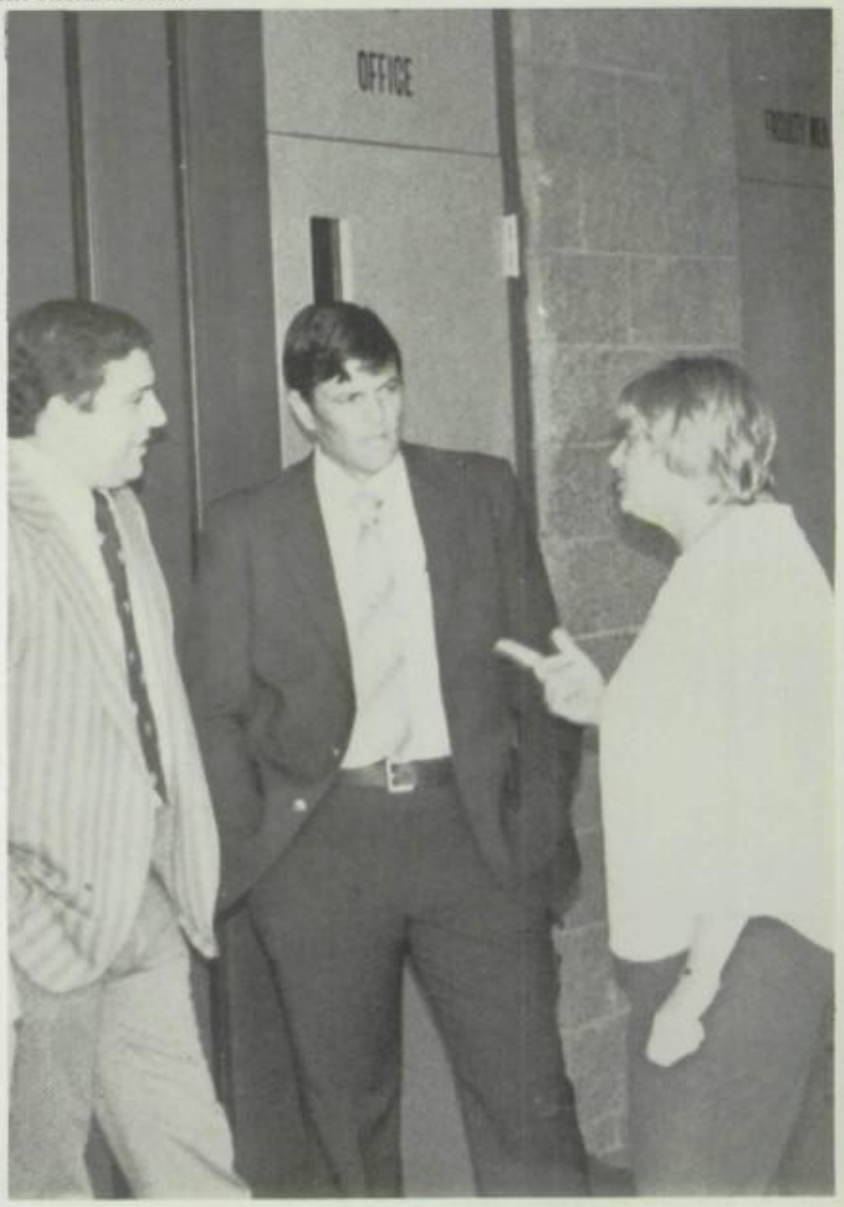
This job replaced a one-year term of administrative intern. Mr. Ray Monti became interim principal, replacing Mr. Lane, and Mr. Greg Porterfield was selected as vice-principal. Classified staff working with administrators included Mrs. Joyce Lane, Principal's secretary, and Mrs. Nancy Lindstrom, Registrar.



Discussing plans are Mr. Monti, Mr. Porterfield, and Ms. Phillips.

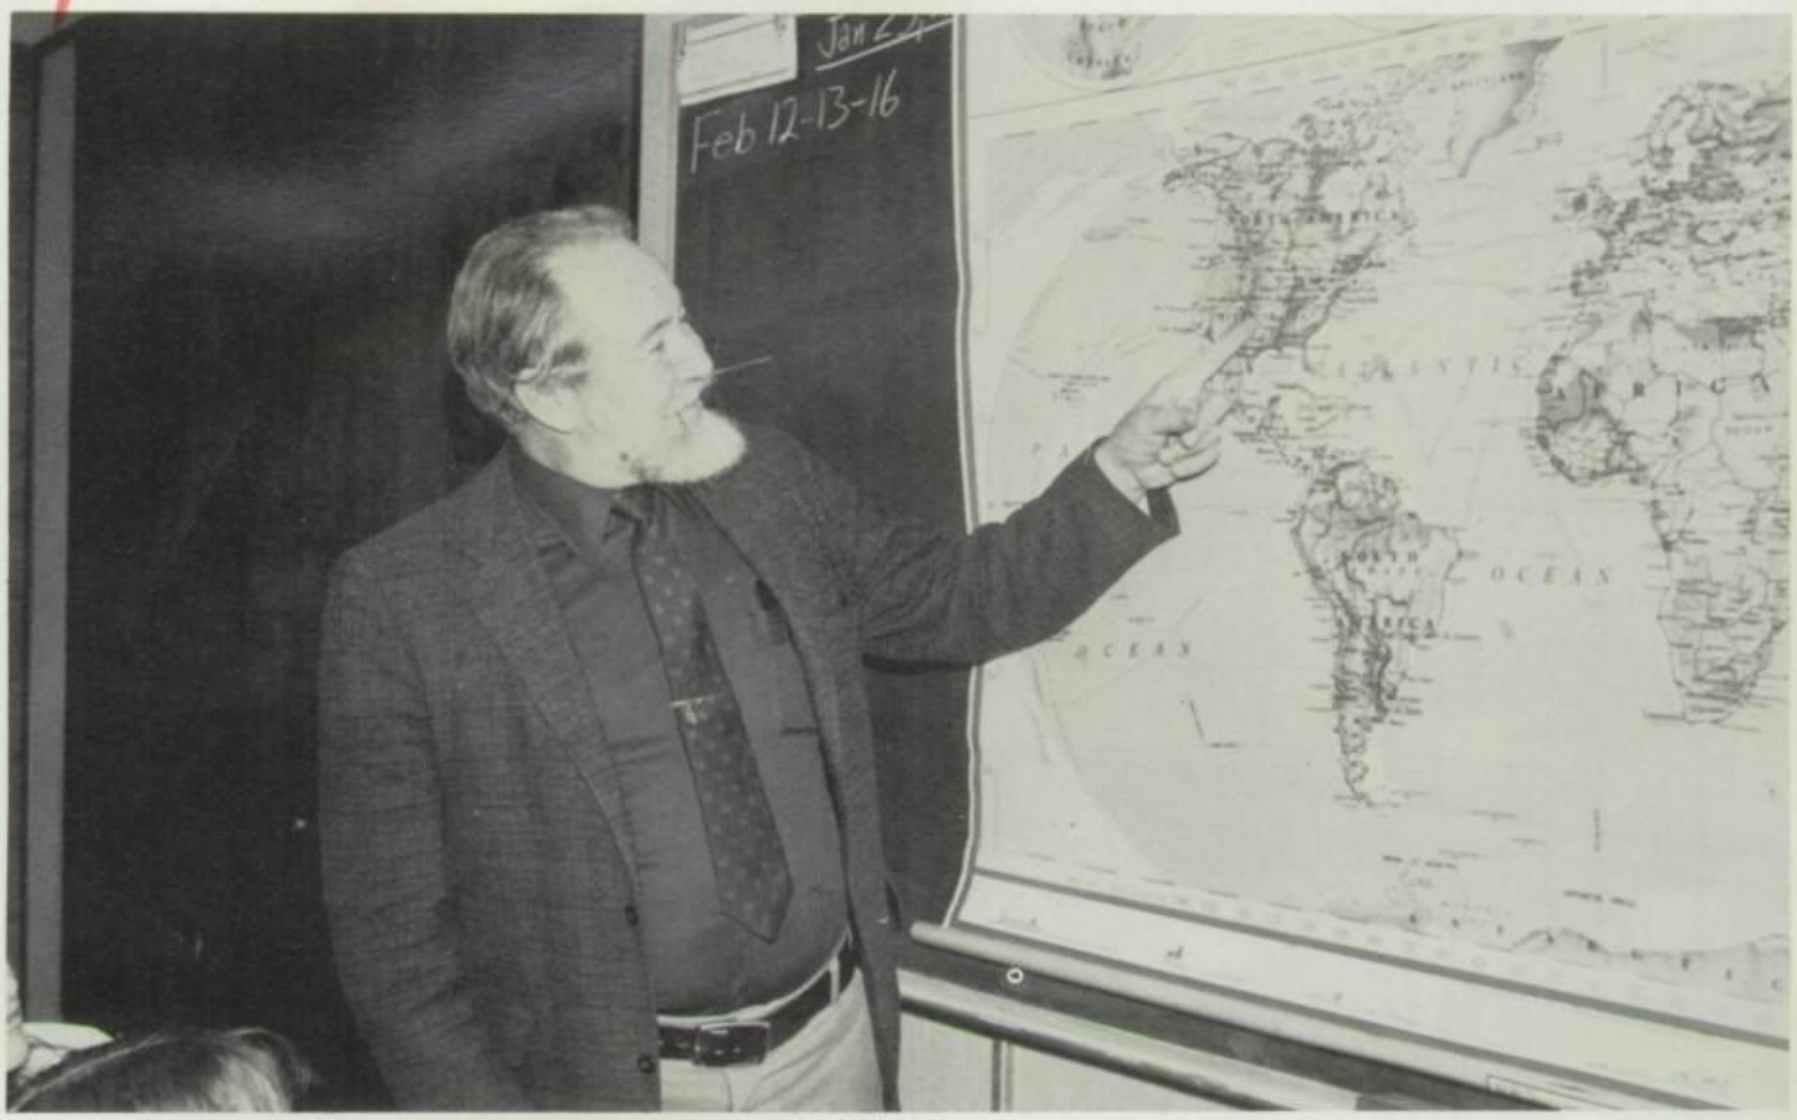
Social Sciences Creates Interest



Mr. Phil Clawson

Under the direction of Mr. Clawson and Mr. Howard students learn skills that lead to a greater understanding of today's society through courses in U.S. history and American government.

Another concept of developing responsible citizens is taught through health and humanology classes. Social acceptance of roles, as well as understanding the human body emotionally and physically, is presented through materials in the health science classes taught by Mr. Barnes. Self-acceptance and developing a positive self-image are goals of the humanology classes under the leadership of instructor, Sallie Phillips.

Science, taught by Mr. Fetzer and Mr. Barnes, helps students to recognize the importance of science in our modern society. Driver education, instructed by Mr. Linehan, develops student responsibility through learning the safe operation of a motor vehicle.

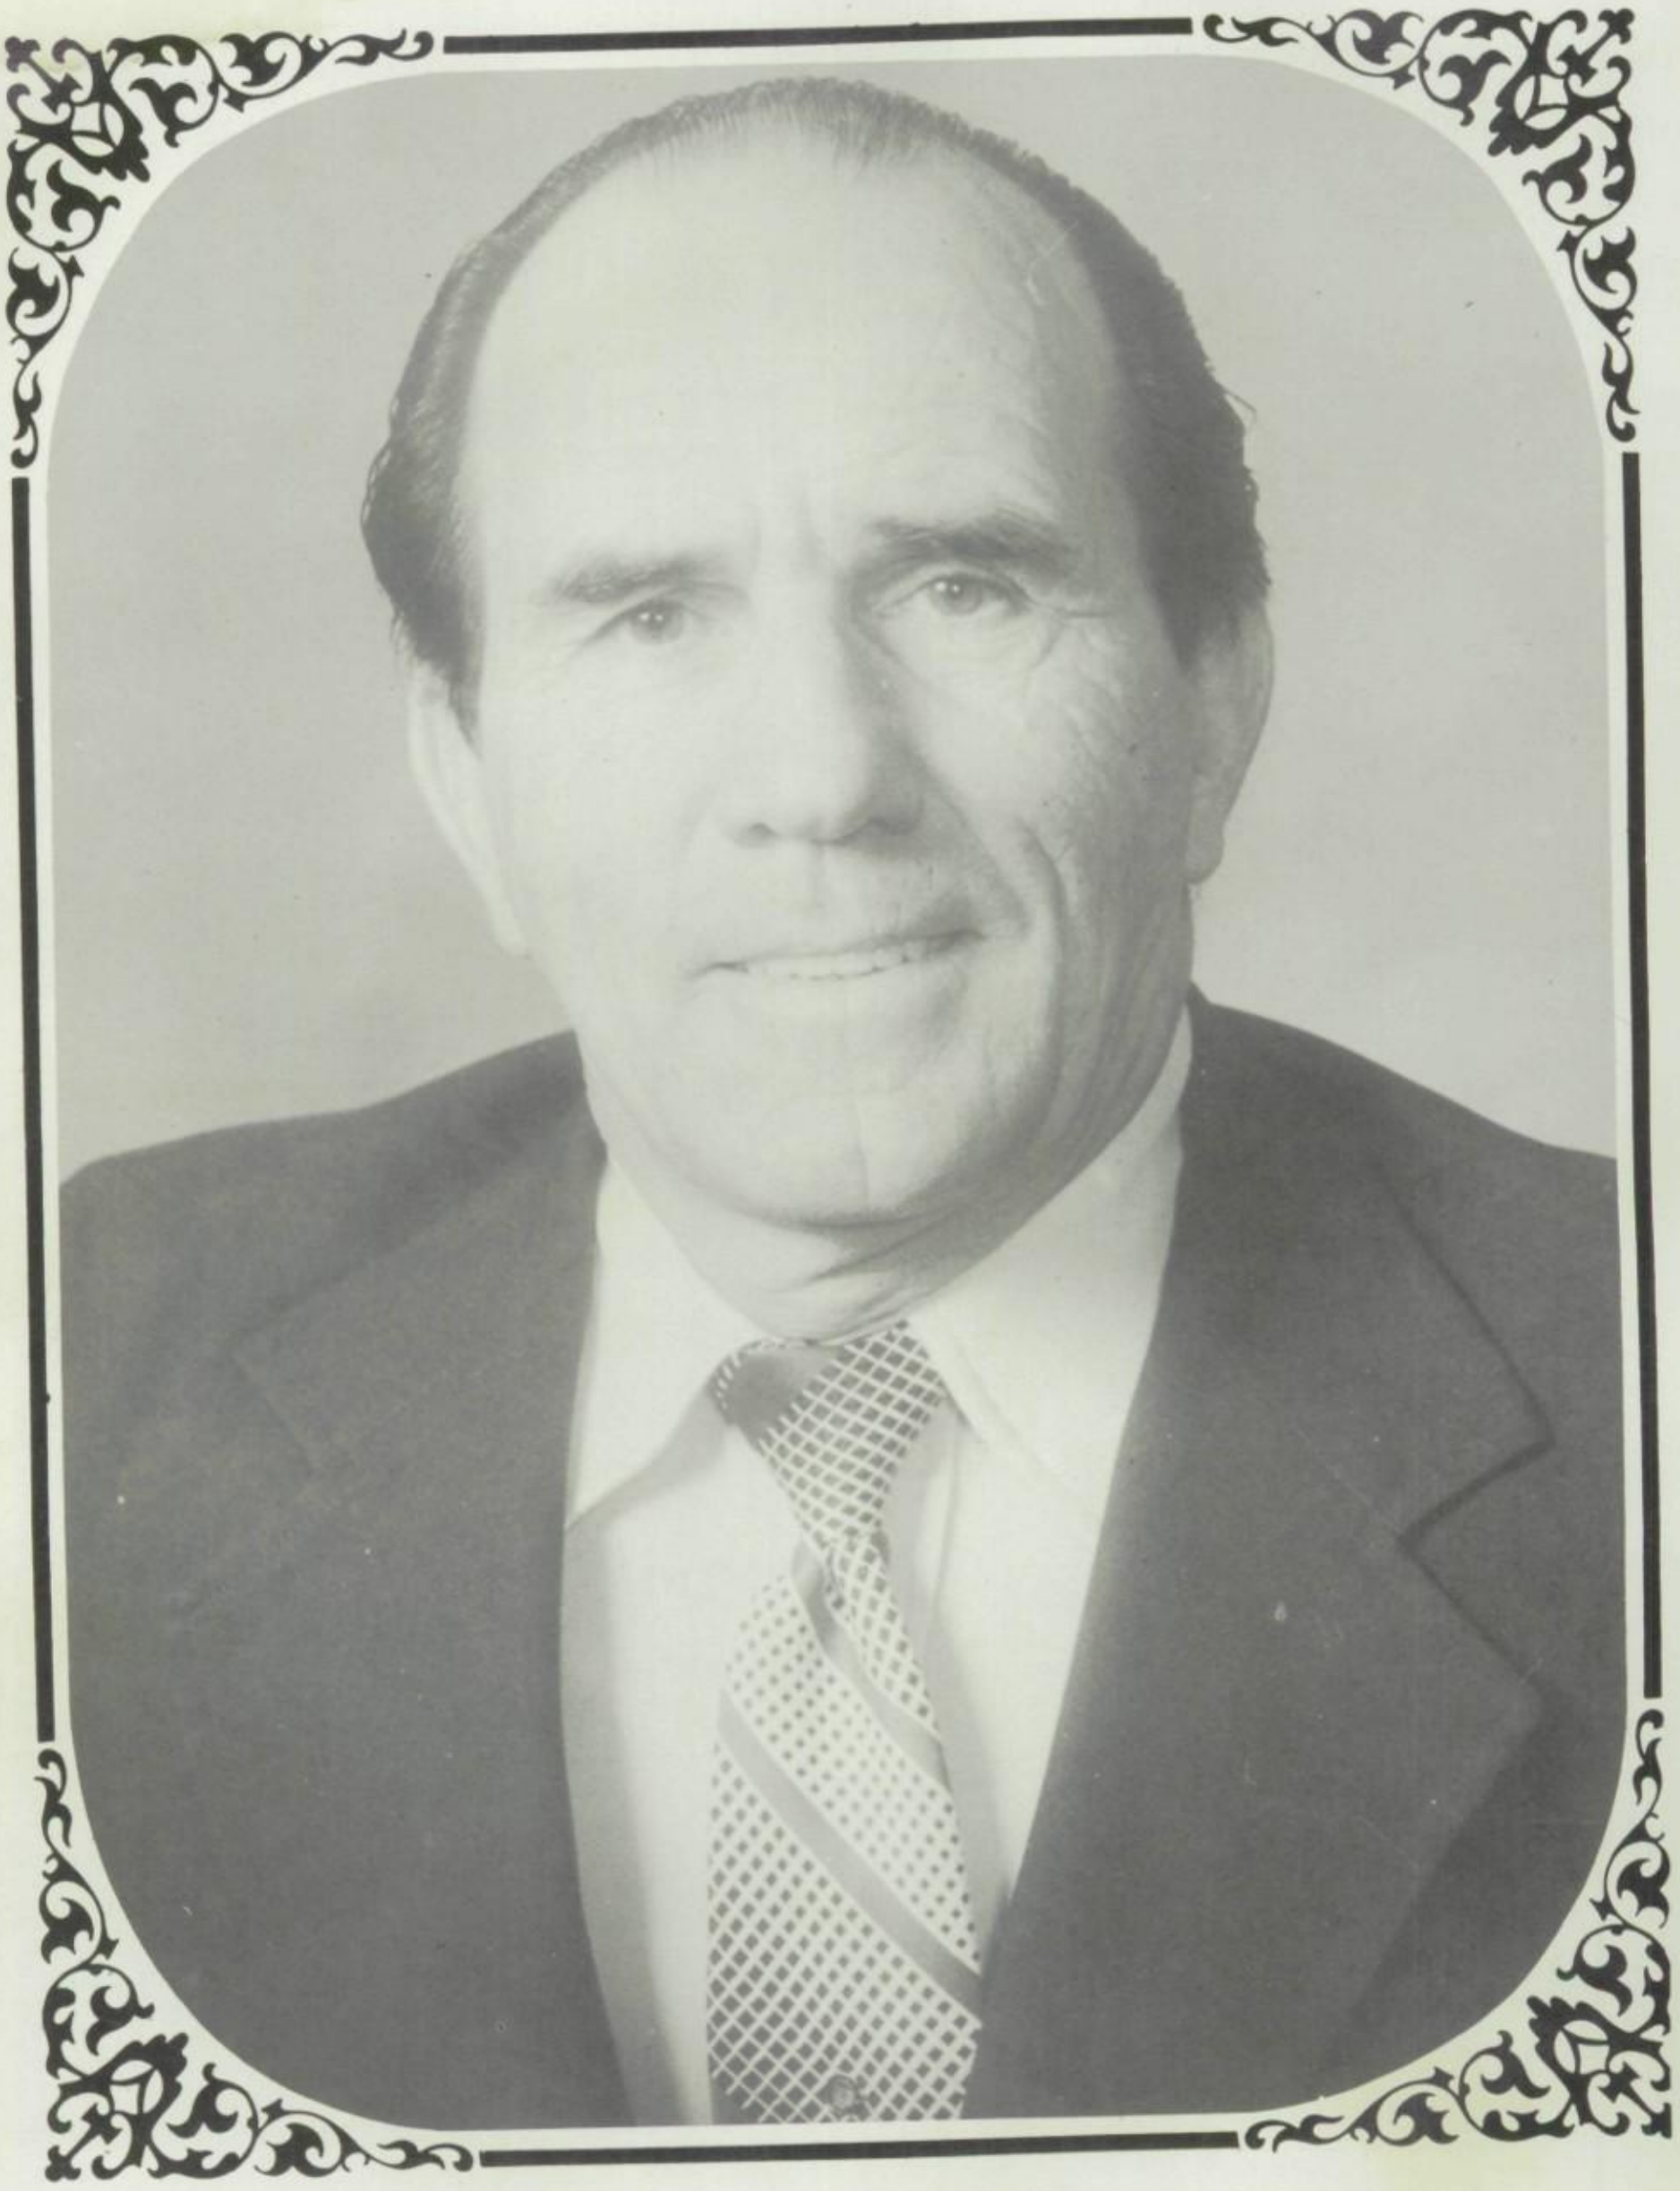
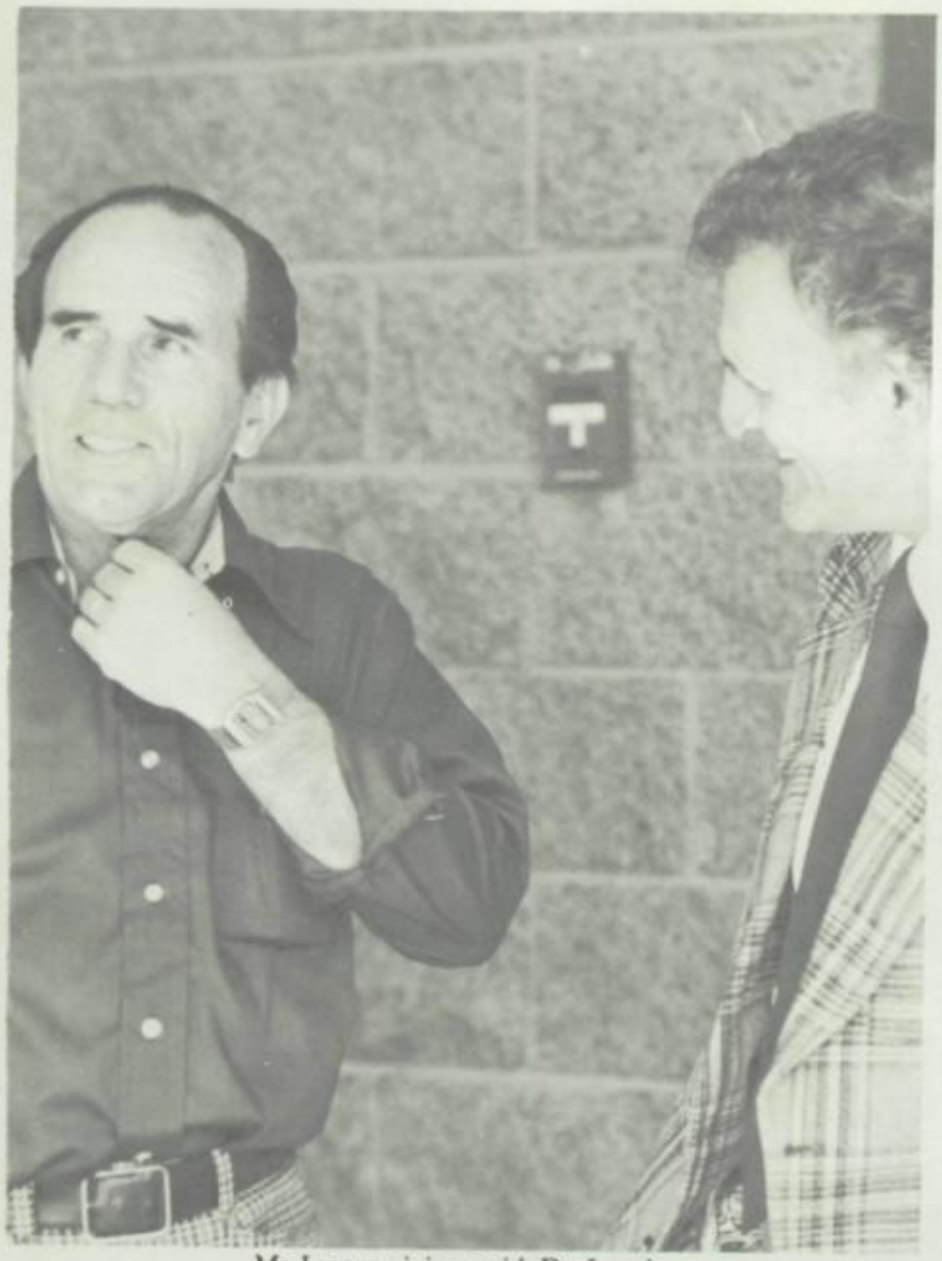
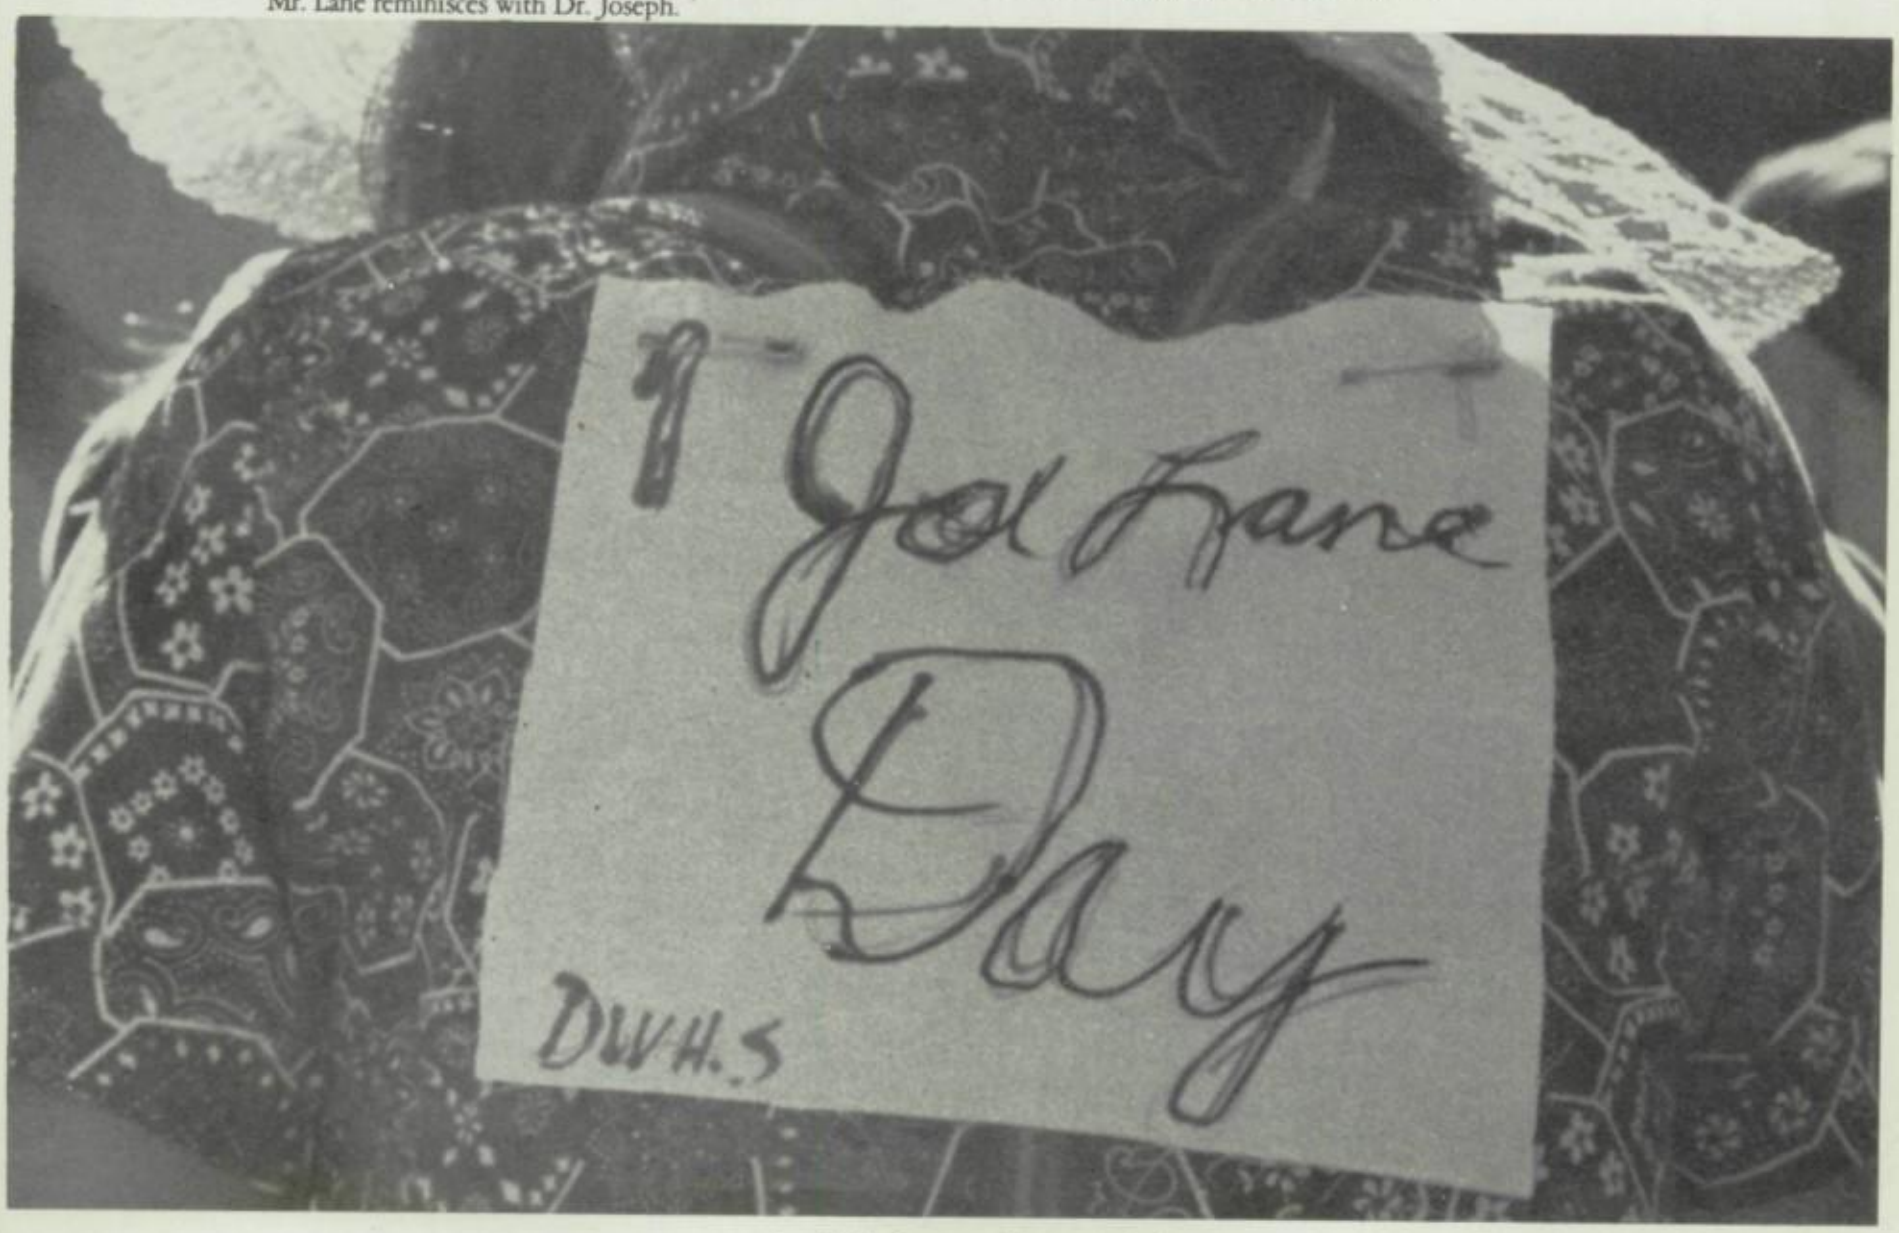
Desert Winds Bids Farewell To Principal Joe Lane





Mr. Lane reminisces with Dr. Joseph.

The 1981 Yearbook staff would like to dedicate this year's Orade to our former Principal, Mr. Joseph W. Lane. Mr. Lane has given 15 years of devoted service to continuation students all over the Antelope Valley. Heart surgery forced Mr. Lane to take an early medical leave. So we, the Yearbook Staff, dedicate this yearbook, with appreciation and love.



Special day honors retiring principal.

WITH APPRECIATION

The 1981 Oracle staff and myself as co-editor wish to thank the many individuals who helped to make our "Journey" a successful venture. First, thanks to Ms. Deanna Larson, Palmdale High School yearbook advisor, for the many hours she spent helping us to learn the basic of yearbook production; to Pat Macurio for his taking charge and completing the advertising section; to Ms. Kathy Sands and Harry Weekley, Jr. for their photographs in the opening section; to Ms. Ann Hurd and Rick Baggett for the many hours spent printing pictures.

A very special thanks to a very special lady, our advisor, Ms. Sallie Phillips. Without her patience, love, and understanding, the completion of this book would not have been possible. Thanks "Mom" for giving us room to grow.
